Client Complaints Policy

DWF is committed to providing excellent service and we continually aim to be better, but we do recognise that sometimes things can go wrong, and our service may fall short of client expectations. When this happens, it is important to bring it to our attention as soon as possible so that we can investigate and resolve your complaint promptly and fairly.

Your feedback helps us to understand you better, which in turn supports our aim to continually adapt and improve our services to you.

There are two main stages to the DWF complaints process, which aims to resolve any issues swiftly and promptly for you.

STAGE 1

Please see the methods below in the event you wish to make a complaint, this will not affect your matter with us.

- 1. The letter of engagement or our first communication, as appropriate, contains the name and contact details of the person you can contact by email, letter or telephone.
- 2. You can also use our online complaint form here: DWF Complaint Form

Once we receive your complaint:

- This will be recorded and acknowledged within 1 working day
- You will be advised within 2 working days of the acknowledgement the name and status of the person who is investigating your complaint.
- The complaints investigator will review any immediate actions if they are needed and carry out a full investigation.
- We will aim to resolve your complaint within 20 working days and our findings will be communicated to you.
- We do hope that we will be able to reach a resolution within this time but if this is not possible due to the complexity of the complaint, we will inform you of the amended timescales.
- Following the investigation, you will receive our final response by your preferred method of contact. This will include details of the relevant independent body should you wish to escalate your complaint in the event you are dissatisfied with the outcome.
